MAY-DAY FESTIVAL

The Kilohana Art
League is Well
Supported.

MOTHERS AND PARENTS HELP

Meeting Held Yesterday in Thomas
Square Where Plans Were Outlined.

The showery weather yesterday afternoon compelled the improvement circle of the Kilohana Art League and its friends to hold their May Day meeting in the Thomas Square bandstand, instead of under the banyan trees, as before, to discuss its preparations for the grand May Day festival for the school children. There was a large gathering of school teachers and parents present to meet the executive committee of the improvement circle, which consisted of W. W. Hall, Mrs. William Montrose Graham and W. R. Castle Jr. The greatest enthusiasm was manifested by all present, and the reports showed that the festival will be very successful from every point of view.

It was decided to have W. R. Castle Jr. act as marshal of the day, assisted by Mrs. A. B. Tucker, Miss Ida Pope, Captain H. Berger and Edgar Newcomb. These will also constitute a committee to draft the program of exercises.

Mrs. Wood, a school teacher, has the May-pole children in training, one of whom is to be the May Queen. Each year this duty will be taken up by a different school.

The nucleus of a flower committee was formed, and their duty will be to solicit flowers, shrubs, flowering plants, palm leaves, leis and other flowers, which are to be carried by the children in the procession, all of which will be laid at the feet of the May Queen, who will be seated on a throne. The children from the outer districts, where few flowers are to be had, will be liberally supplied with blossoms, and the meaning of May Day will be impressed upon them by this pretty custom. An effort is being made to have the different classes of the schools carry uniform floral offerings. For instance, one class will carry palm leaves, another oleanders, etc. The May-pole will be elaborately decorated.

Instead of being a mere formal ceremony it will probably be a day on which every poor child who attends school will have an opportunity to enjoy the sunshine, music, flowers and luncheon, under circumstances that appeal to them as no other out-of-door fête will. The mothers and parents of this city have responded nobly to the call for a luncheon, and will provide about all the youngsters can eat.

The Kilohana Art League anticipate that their little hearts will throb and their eyes dance with pleasure when they see each other carrying armfuls of crotons, palm leaves, oleanders, callas, and other beautiful flowers of the Islands. It was arranged yesterday that they will sing in grand chorus, "America" and other patriotic airs, together with the well known "I Will Make a Lei," to the accompaniment of the band.

Miss Parish is at the head of the committee to secure funds for the luncheon, decorations and the numberless little expenses of the day. A good report was made yesterday at the meeting as to the subscriptions, but more are needed. Those who evince a desire to assist in giving the 4,000 school children of Honolulu a pleasurable day can send their donations of funds to Miss Parish, W. R. Castle Jr., or to Mrs. W. M. Graham.

THE Y. M. C. A.

Annual Meeting Took Place Last Evening.

The annual meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association was held last evening, Mr. H. E. Coleman presiding. The meeting was opened with a prayer offered by Rev. Theodore Richards.

Several reports were read, all showing progress and advancement in the different lines of work.

Rev. Silas P. Perry made an address upon the subject, "Investment of Effort," entertaining the members for a half hour. He was followed by Mr. Coleman, the retiring chairman, who, under the subject, "Expansion," gave an outline of the growth of the association, and suggested plans for the work of the coming year. By Mr. Coleman's address and the reports read it was shown that the association has outgrown its present quarters, and that there was an urgent need for more room, particularly an apartment for social pleasure, of suitable size, and a room for the junior classes. A committee was appointed to look about for a location and consider the possibility of building new quarters. This committee consists of Messrs. Walter Weedon, M. G. Johnson, George B. McClellan, J. M. Moore and W. M. Templeton.

New directors were elected to succeed Mr. Coleman. Mr. E. Deller and Mr. B. F. Beardmore. The newly elected directors are Mr. Walter C. Weedon, Mr. J. M. Moore and Mr. Edgar Wood. The subject of electing delegates to attend the International Convention, to be held at Boston on June 11, came up, and several members who are contemplating trips through the Eastern States were appointed delegates to attend if it is possible for them to do so. They are as follows: Henry Waterhouse, William Henry, H. E. Coleman, John Waterhouse, E. R. White, W. C. Weedon and T. C. Damon.

A letter from Mr. John D. Gorham, of Boston, was read. Mr. Gorham was one of the earliest residents of Hawaii, having been in the Islands in 1841. He is well known in Hawaii, and extends an invitation to the delegates sent from the Territory to be his guests while attending the convention. The letter was received with applause, and Mr. Gorham was appointed a delegate to represent Hawaii at the convention, his long residence and many friends here entitling him to such an honor.

The meeting closed with a hymn and a prayer by Rev. S. P. Perry.

President Ashley of Albion College will resign.
